Grandpa Froby seems to have been delighted with the recent event which made him Grandpa. Don't spoil the baby, grandpa.

And, still hundreds of officers in three states are looking for some of the convicts who escaped from Parchman. It is a crying shame that Parchman has a system that permitted the breakout in January, and another more serious one in February.

I hear that some of the convicts interrupted a poker party in the home of some big shot swamp planter near Jonestown, took all the money, removed the bitches and took over the big cars, also cut the telephone lines. One player, it was told, crawled out the window but to fall into the hands of other convicts outside, who admonished him severely about deserting his companions, then took his money, bitches and watch, and threw him bodily back into the house thru the window. I hope none of our former Grenada boys were mixed up in this poker party, because it is against the law to gamble in Mississippi.

Anyway, something drastic should be done about the Parchman situation.

Watch out, brethren of the press, for the State candidates who want a lot of free space, but who let out all of their paid printing to the firms who can use Union Label. Tell the candidates to get their publicity where they get their printing.

Speaking of books, give some books to the boys in uniform. While a few soldiers might like to ponder over profound tomes of philosophy, most of them prefer (just as you and I) something hot and sizzling, something to quicken the pulse and make their teeth itch. Give books that YOU liked.

You Are Urged To Raise A Garden

For the purpose to conserve food to supply our armed forces and our allied nations it is suggested that you plant a garden, one large enough to grow from as home canned foods are NOT rationed. Regardless of your financial or social position or whether you be a banker, a baker or a candlestick maker, you are urged to participate in home grown foods. It is felt that this is part of your duty. If labor is not available, which is true, to roll up your sleeves and work your own den and can the surplus foods that you raise, yourself.

Regardless of how small a plot you have or may obtain it is still urged that you plant. If you haven't a plot to plant on it is suggested that those persons owning vacant lots to rent or share with persons for that purpose. If it is felt that the vacant lot owners will consider it their patriotic duty in this emergency to rent plots for gardening purpose, where ground is scarce several families could plant on one large plot, but by all means PLANT A GARDEN if it must be your beautiful front lawn. We are at War and MUST win and right now vegetables growing in your front yard will look and be much more appropriate than beautiful flowers and grasses that are NOT edible.

To protect us in our food raising endeavor it is strongly suggested that our City Officials draft or frame a new law for the Duration on livestock and poultry running at large by deeming the owner wholly responsible for the damage done to gardens, payable to the gardener with a fine to the City of not less than $10.00 or more than $50.00 or 10 days jail sentence or both on sufficient proof. It is true we already have a mild stock law but it is not enforced as there is no "Cow Catcher" and no one available for that job. Every able bodied man is either or should be engaged in Defense work. It is felt that our City Officials, as is their duty, will realize our prevailing conditions and make every reasonable effort to protect and conserve with us in our growing food effort. We must grow. One cow, one mule or horse or several chickens will destroy in one hour ample vegetables to supply one family one week or more. Let's ALL plant a garden. The City will protect us against livestock destruction.

Tom Brown Takes Over Rose Cafe

Mr. Tom Brown bought out the interest of Mr. Tommie Rose in Rose Cafe effective last Thursday at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Rose have operated the cafe in connection with the ticket office of the Tri-State Trail ways for over ten years. For the present at least, Mrs. Rose, one of the most efficient ticket agents on the line, will be assistant ticket agent for Tri-State. Mr. O. Young will be head of the ticket office.

Tri-State, which has the lease on the property at the Masonic Temple, is preparing to install outdoor latrines, and generally overhaul the premises.

Col. Ryder, The Honorary War Fund Chairman

Colonel Ira E. Ryder, Post Commander at Camp McCain, Mississippi, has accepted the invitation of the American Red Cross to serve as Honorary War Fund Chairman, together with Major General Percy W. Clarkson, commanding the 87th Division at Camp McCain, and Colonel Charles E. Sutherland, commanding the 2nd Army Special Troops at Camp McCain. It was announced today by Mr. William V. Alesi, Red Cross Field Director, at Camp McCain, Mississippi.

In accepting this position the Post Commander paid tribute to the Red Cross and called for a wholehearted response to the War Fund Drive which will be held next month.

"It isn't necessary for me to tell you how valuable the Red Cross services have been on this post," the Commander said. "We know the staff has been on the job every day. 24 hours in the day."

"This is typical of Red Cross everywhere. In theatres of war, on other posts, and in the thousands of chapters and branches in all parts of the United States."

"Many a service man has been helped out of a tough spot. In fact, more than 1,500,000 troubled soldiers, sailors, and marines received assistance. In many instances, financial aid—from the American Red Cross last year. Let us show our service men and Red Cross we are backing them 100 percent."

It was revealed that the War Fund Campaign will be conducted only among the commissioned officer and civilian personnel of the post. Enlisted men may participate if they desire, but they will not be contacted. The national goal of Red Cross is 125,000,000 dollars. With the appointment of Captain Norman E. Youngblood, Finance Officer, Camp McCain, as Executive War Fund Chairman, the Post Commander stated that the Red Cross drive for funds for Services to the Armed Forces would begin March 1, 1943.

Young Men Swell Ranks Of 87th

Among the first group of young soldiers to be inducted into the American Army under the teen age draft amendment recently passed by Congress, joined the 87th Infantry Division, Commanded by Major General P. M. Clarkson.

Their arrival climaxed months of preparation, which included the Activation Day Program, attended by Lt. Gen. Ben Lear, Commanded of the Second Army. General Lear foretold the arrival of the teen age selectees whom he said on December 22nd, at Camp McCain, that the 87th Division would have for its responsibility the training for combat of 18 and 19 year old youths of the nation.

The young selectees arrived at Camp McCain and were received by Maj. Gen. Clarkson, Col. Russell C. Throckmorton, Chief of Staff, Lt. Col. Raymond Lane, Commanding Officer of the Reception Battalion and other members of the staff. General Clarkson, on his tour of inspection, complimented the young soldiers on their military bearing, and their zest and energy. He was impressed by the general appearance of the men, and is confident that they will respond favorably to the modern style of warfare, to which they will be eventually subjected. General Clarkson predicted that the 87th Division would soon be in a position to join the list of crack combat units, fighting to defeat the axis forces.

Upon their arrival the young soldiers were immediately quartered in warm barracks and given a thorough medical and dental examination. They were then marched to the mess hall, where Lieutenants Frank Minor and Louis Cluff, Mess Officers, had a warm supper prepared for the men.

The new men will participate in an intensive and aggressive training schedule, destined to turn them into a fighting team, capable of meeting and overcoming any obstacle which may confront them.

The 87th Infantry Division was recently activated on December 22nd, by a War Dept. Order. During the last year this organization was first commanded by Maj. Gen. Samuel D. Sturgis, and received high praise for its work with Service of Supply.

CHEATHAM SOON TO BE ELECTRICIAN'S MATE

John Foster Cheatham, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster G. Cheatham, Rural Route, Grenada, Mississippi, soon will be a qualified electrician's mate in the Navy. He is enrolled in the U. S. Naval Training school for electricians at the University of Minnesota. Upon completion of the 16-week course he will be eligible for promotion to the petty officer rating of electrician's mate, third class, and will be assigned to duty with the fleet at a shore station.

J. P. Coleman Asks Another Term As District Attorney

The Grenada County Weekly this week carries a new announcement, that of Hon. J. P. Coleman, of Ackerman, for reelection as District Attorney for this district composed of Atala, Carroll, Choctaw, Grenada,

HON. J. P. COLEMAN

Montgomery, Webster and Winston counties.

He is a native of Choctaw county, the county where he still maintains his home. By his own efforts, he worked his way through the University of Mississippi, using sweet potatoes, which he made as partial payment. Afterwards, he was graduated from the George Washington University in Washington, D. C. He is married and has one son.

Among the many hon. conferred upon him by his home people and the people of his district are: Deacon in his church, the Baptist; Master of the Ackerman Blue Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons; elected district attorney in 1933 over two opponents, receiving one of the seven counties.

He is elected as delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago in 1940; was attorney for the Board of Supervisors of Choctaw County for four years, and attorney for the town of Ackerman four years.

Mr. Coleman has made a good record in looking after the interest of this State in hundreds of cases. If his judgment is that a conviction is impossible, or improbable, he asks for a nolle prosequi rather than waste the money of the county and the time of the Court. On the other hand, if he sees that there is a good chance of conviction of a guilty person, he uses his fine talents in prosecuting the case to its conclusion, often a successful one for the State.

Will Hendricks Enters Beat Three Supervisor Race

The pot is just "biling" over in Beat Three. Our announcement column is growing by leaps and bounds.

One of Will's friends authorized the Grenada County Weekly to place the name of Will Hendricks in the column where those seeking the important post of supervisors of that district are placed.

Will is comparatively speaking a young man. He has lived the best part of his life in that beat, and that was where he and his good wife have reared their family. Though born in Yale, bishu county, where he still has excellent relatives, he chose to live on the Grenada county side of the line.

Will is a fine fellow, progressive in his ideas, a good neighbor and a good citizen, and, if elected, will do his utmost to establish and maintain a record that his family and those who placed him in that important position will be proud of.

For a number of years, he was one of the members of the County Democratic Election Commission representing his beat. He also served his beat on the Welfare Board.

He has had experience in building and maintaining county roads.

The Grenada County Weekly speaks for him the earnest consideration of the good people of District Three.

THOMPSON JOINS COAST DRAFT BOARD

E. C. Thompson, retired, Grenada lumberman, who was engaged in the wholesale lumber business for 25 years and has been living in Biloxi for six years, has been appointed a member of the Biloxi Selective Service Board. He will serve with Acting Chairman A. W. Carey and E. C. Tinsmeire, the other two board members.

Mr. Thompson is a native of Trenton, Tenn., and formerly was in business in Arkansas. His son, Edward, is a sergeant in the Army Signal Corps, stationed in England.

Gifford Appeals To Nation To Support War Fund Drive

An appeal for millions of Americans to join in supporting their Red Cross was issued today by Walter S. Gifford, national chairman of the $125,000,000 American Red Cross War Fund.

With the approval of President Roosevelt and Chairman Norman H. Davis, Mr. Gifford said, the month of March will be devoted to the Red Cross appeal.

"Only through the support of millions of our citizens can we be assured that all vital obligations of the Red Cross will be accomplished," Mr. Gifford said.

"The Red Cross belongs to our nation. Its support comes from voluntary contributions of men and women. Its services on the battle front and the home front are carried out by more than three and a half million volunteers. It is a privilege to give to the Red Cross and to work for it."

"A small lapel tab with a Red Cross against a white background, will be a badge of honor worn by millions of us in the next four weeks."

"We can be with our men on the battle front only in spirit, but we can be represented there in the physical presence of Red Cross field directors. They are on every front with American task forces, and form the vital link of communication between the military man and his family at home. Red Cross women workers in military hospitals at home and in the hospitals on every foreign outpost serve our troops in our name. Others lend a touch of home in the Red Cross overseas clubs in every foreign country where our men are fighting."

"The Red Cross Services to the Armed Forces, and the many Red Cross services on the home front will be supported for a year to come from the 1943 War Fund. I am confident every person in our nation wants to have a part in this work, through giving to the Red Cross chapter in his community."

Mr. Gifford accepted appointment as chairman of the 1943 Red Cross War Fund after his services were asked for by Chairman Davis "with the cordial approval of President Roosevelt."

Mr. Gifford is president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Mr. Gifford's service for the Red Cross is the latest in a long list of important governmental, civic and community posts in which he has served. He was called to serve his country by Presidents Wilson and Hoover prior to the present call from President Roosevelt.

Doctors, Civilian and Military, Meet At Camp McCain

At the invitation of the members of the Grenada County Medical Society and the officers of the Army Medical Corps of Camp McCain, approximately forty members of the medical profession from the surrounding territory gathered at the Post Hospital at Camp McCain Tuesday at one o'clock for a program, and for dinner in a large hall.

The following is the program:
Introduction of Colonel D. C. Campbell, Commander of the Station Hospital by Dr. J. K. Arent, of Grenada.
Introduction of guests by Colonel Campbell.

Words of Welcome by Colonel Ira E. Ryder, Camp Commander.

General Remarks by Colonel L. W. Long, State Director of Selective Service.

Peripheral Arterial Disease by Dr. Alton Ochsen.

Banting and the Miracle of Insulin by Dr. Seale Harris.

Wounds Healing by Dr. Alton Ochsen.

Following this a dinner at the Station Hospital was enjoyed. The opportunity to inspect the camp was accepted by many of the guests.

Honor guests were Col. Ira E. Ryder and Col. L. W. Long, the latter being the personal representative of Governor Paul Johnson of Mississippi, who was necessarily absent.

Gore Springs H. D. Club Meets

The Gore Springs Home Demonstration Club met in club room for the February meeting, with a large number present.

A committee was appointed to decide upon whose name would be put on the new Honor Roll, which was bought by the club in honor of our boys in service. It was decided to put only the boys name on this honor roll whose mother is a member of this club. There are thirteen at this date.

The remainder of the meeting was a surprise party given in honor of Mrs. E. P. Gillon, whose birthday is on Valentine. A contest was given, which she was the winner, and a large basket of gifts were presented to her, as the members sang "Happy Birthday to You"—See.

THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYE

By Mrs. W. W. Whitaker

Having just returned from a trip to Chicago where I visited cousins and to Columbia, Mo., where I visited our daughter, Dorothy, who is a junior at the University, School of Journalism, I find that thoughts of this trip fills my mind almost to the exclusion of local events.

Leaving Grenada on the Panama Limited Sunday evening, at 6:45, the trip seemed very short indeed, as we arrived at Twelfth Street Station at 7:45 Monday morning. Before we left the train we had been informed that the thermometer stood at 2 below zero. The weather man related however, and we enjoyed balmy 14 above during the day. My cousin knowing that the weather was extra severe for me, brought a fur coat for my use and I may add it felt comfortable all three days I spent there. The greatness of the buildings, the aliveness of the pedestrians and the quick start of motors as lights change always amazed me. People just do not "loaf" in the big city of Chicago. After breakfast my cousin, his wife and I attended to the business I went to Chicago to attend to, and believe it or not we were there throughout the day. Had lunch with the attorney and after further business discussions Elaine and I went to Marshall Fields Walnut room for tea. Quite a lovely place with walnut paneled walls, magnificent fountain surrounded by ferns and tropical plants, neat waitresses, darling about, handsome and stylishly attired women continually coming and going. After tea we went from floor to floor looking at things all women adore looking at—and finally came to the display cases where table damask was on sale. No sooner did Elaine find the 122 inch damask banquet cloth in pale gold which was reduced to something 40 odd dollars from its former price of 50 odd that about four other women started buying and all wanting the same cloth. One purchased two cloths with napkins at over a hundred dollar; and one other lady finally took the last one priced at about $52.00. I am sure they all wanted more and I can still see their slender manicured fingers alighting over their prizes, and can feel their pride of possession. We met Chuck and went to Evanston for dinner and then on to their home in Arlington Heights. Near their home is the great Douglas Air Craft (Motor) industry. It is housed in a huge building of stone and brick and steel and builders glass that covers an area of approximately 1 1/2 miles by two miles. When workmen are enroute to work the highways are policed by traffic officers from Highway Patrol and traffic is jammed. I noticed many government sponsored buildings, neat homes of brick structure as well as of wooden structure, built especially for war workers families. They were in neighborhoods or units of 120 homes. I saw beautiful Lake Michigan with its apron of ice extended from, frozen piling along the shore drive and from pier as far as a mile out. There was quiet majesty there in early evening and the lights along the shore above an exquisite necklace against the dark bosom of the sky.

For the first time in my life I testified in court. We were assigned to a Judge in the county building. Before our case was called, others with appointments presenting their cases—among them were negro lawyers, both men and women, there was a blind lawyer with his seeing eye dog, also a very busy woman lawyer. Our case was settled satisfactorily to all.

In Chicago there's lots of criticism about the subway built the past few years. It's a known fact that part of the loop is built on land reclaimed from the lake, with the sand formation. At this time there are "cave ins" disturbances in the subway area with resultant law suits by a few property owners where great buildings are either settling or tilting—as some one said "its just another New Deal failure".

Chicago is electrified by the war effort. Only the older people seem to be at ease.

On Wednesday morning I left for St. Louis and reached that city at 5:30 p. m. The Union Station was filled with soldiers, sailors, WAA's, bridal parties, WAVES, young boy recruits not yet in uniform, stumbling along in ragged formation, and the weary traveler who gets a seat on the train if there's room for him.

I went to a drug store to make a purchase and the proprietor directed

VICTORY GARDEN

Thursday, February 18th the Garden Club held its monthly meeting at the High School building. The meeting was held in the homes of members, was changed in order that the High School students might hear the talks made by Mrs. Neely and Mrs. Gillis.

The program was based on the important subject "Victory Gardens." Mrs. Neely, home demonstration agent for Grenada county spoke at length, concerning the planting of gardens and promised cooperation with the individual seeking advice concerning the preparation of the soil and the planting of the seed, and the preservation of all garden surplus.

Mrs. Gillis, employed by Miss. Power and Light Co., as home advisor, spoke on the many benefits procured from serving fresh garden produce. The Garden Club announced an interesting contest, sponsored by the Garden Club to be entered into by citizens within the City of Grenada. Prizes will be given as follows: First Best Adult Victory Garden, 1st prize $4.00; Second Adult Victory Garden, 2nd prize $1.00; First Best School age Victory Garden, 1st prize $4.00; Second Best School age Victory Garden, 2nd prize $1.00; Best Negro School age Victory Garden prize $4.00.

All contestants are asked to place a white board with red "V" on front steps to show that they have planted a Victory Garden.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

On Tuesday, February 16, Twentieth Century Club members met in the lovely country home of Mrs. W. H. Kirk for a most interesting program. The home was charmingly decorated with bowls of those lovely harbingers of spring, the yellow jonquills, also choice snap dragons from the greenhouse, were arranged and placed at a vantage point, exciting the admiration of the guests. Mrs. John Keeton was cohostess, however was unable to attend because of the presence in the Keeton home of their son, Benton who was here for a farewell visit before entering military service. Mrs. R. L. Vandiver graciously assisted the hostess in receiving and in serving refreshments.

On the program were two talented speakers, Mrs. E. A. Penn who reviewed the book, "In This Our Life," by Ellen Glasgow; and Mrs. Spivey Kent, who reviewed Rawlin's "Cross Creek."

Refreshments consisting of coffee, sandwiches and fudge cake were served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. R. L. Scott, nee Mrs. Tina Dudley returned to her home in Indianapolis on Monday of this week, after a ten day visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. S. Gerard and with her friend, Mrs. H. B. Spain.

Mrs. Arthur Grider and little son, Lennie, left last week-end for their home in Newton after a visit with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Spain.

Pvt. Andrew D. Whitaker, graduate radio operator of Smyrna Field, Tenn., is at home visiting his wife and parents for ten days.

Mrs. F. C. Blackman, of Monroe, La. visited her husband, Major Blackman the past week-end.

Mr. Harry Greenfield, local chairman for USO Jewish work among the soldiers spent Monday in New Orleans attending a Regional USO meeting.

Mrs. W. T. Mann, of Philadelphia, Pa., is at home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leggett and family.

Friends of Emmett Barrentine will be interested to know that he received his call to service last week and left on Saturday last for Miami to enter U. S. Army Air Corps. He was a student (freshman) at Miss. State and is 18 years of age.

Mrs. B. S. Barrentine returned home last Wednesday from Little Rock, where she visited her sister for two weeks.

Mrs. John Scott is hostess to her sister, Mrs. Hull, of Chicago this week. Mrs. Lamp Fornham, of Oakland, Calif. will divide her time here visiting in the home of Mrs. John Scott and Mrs. Watling Taylor.

Robert Carver, of Camp Shelby visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Groce Carver recently and during the visit of his brother, Richard, who had a 2-weeks furlough at that time.

ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Harry Burkley was hostess at her lovely country home to members of the Episcopal Auxiliary. Eleven members were present. Mrs. Sax Weir led the opening devotional and the president, Mrs. Whitaker, presided. Mrs. Sherwood, secretary and Mrs. Burkley, treasurer, gave their reports. A gift of $5.00 was donated to the Bishop's Home Memorial fund.

Mrs. T. H. Weir reported the near completion of the curtains for one of the Day Rooms at Camp McCain.

The hostess served Coca-Cola.

MARRIAGE CEREMONY VALENTINE DAY

The 340th Infantry Chapel at Camp McCain, Mississippi was the scene of a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony Sunday, February 14th at 3:30 p. m. and was solemnized by Chaplain Marvin B. Breihan of the 347th Infantry. The ceremony brought about the exchange of marital vows of Miss Irene Sabs, of Carroll, Nebraska and Sgt. Charles E. Garand, of 340th Infantry at Camp McCain.

As the processional, "Lohengrin's Wedding March" was played by Lt. George B. Slater, the bridegroom and best man appeared in the back doorway of Chapel. The best man was Sgt. Harold Dittreich. Both men were dressed in their regular military uniforms. The bride, Miss Nancy Nelson Granberry, of Grenada, appeared in the center aisle of Chapel. She wore a dusty rose afternoon dress, a corsage of pink carnations and had black accessories and white gloves. Next the bride appeared in aisle of Chapel and was escorted and given away to the bridegroom by Captain E. H. Curtis, the bridegroom's Company Commander. She wore a R. A. F. blue suit with navy accessories, white blouse and white gloves and corsage of tallianum roses.

After the processional Chaplain Marvin B. Breihan delivered a brief address on the twenty-third Psalm. After the short talk, "O Perfect Love" was sung by Lt. Rodney P. Scoville of the 347th Infantry accompanied at the organ by Lt. Slater.

The double ring ceremony was used. The altar was decorated with three roses and gladoli bouquets of flowers. Handel's "Arioso" was played for the recessional.

The bride was a former teacher in Neshoba having taught rural schools and in grades at Mason City and Coald, Nebraska. She is a graduate of Carroll High School, Carroll, Nebraska. She also attended Wayne State Teachers' College about three years and recently was attending Concordia College at Seward, Nebraska.

The bridegroom before enlisting in army was a high school principal at Milford, Iowa. He was also superintendent of schools at Brewster, Nebraska. He received his A. B. degree at Wayne State Teachers' College and his Master's degree at University of Nebraska.

After the wedding the couple left for a brief honeymoon at Memphis. The bride couple will reside at Water Valley, Miss.

Those attending the wedding were members of the Service Company of the 340th Infantry and members of the office force at Regimental Headquarters where the bridegroom works. Those attending from Grenada were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Carothers, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Granberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Matthews and Mrs. Rodney P. Scoville.—Contributed.

Mrs. R. C. Christopher and Tommy visited their husband and father, Pvt. R. C. Christopher at Keester Field, Biloxi, the past week-end. This visit was made on the eighth wedding anniversary (February 10) also the birthdays of both Mr. and Mrs. Christopher.

Mrs. J. S. Sharp returned home from Camp Campbell, Hopkinsville, Ky. on Monday after a delightful visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lynn Williams and Lt. Williams.

Mrs. Glen D. Thomason and Mrs. James R. Estep, of San Diego, Calif. are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thomason. They are hoping to be joined here very soon by their husbands, Glen D. Thomason, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Thomason and James R. Estep, both Pharmacists' Mates First Class of the U. S. Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jackson are spending part of this week on the Mississippi Coast. We understand Mrs. Jackson has two nephews in service there, and plans to visit with them.

GARDEN CLUB

The Grenada Garden Club met Thursday, February 18, in the High School auditorium. The members were the guests of the students in their regular daily chapel program.

Mrs. G. D. Thomason, president, presided. The meeting was opened with "A Prayer For Garden Clubs" read in unison by the members. Seventeen members and four visitors were present. Mrs. J. J. Brown was welcomed as a new member. Announcement was made of the next meeting to be held in the Red Cross Room at 1:30 March 18.

After the business session, the High School pupils sang patriotic song, and everyone joined in the flag salute. Mr. Huddle read some verses from the ninth chapter of Daniel. He spoke of heroes and named Daniel as one of them. He emphasized the fact that Daniel faced life the right way toward courage, justice, truth and righteousness. This impressive devotional was followed by a prayer.

The first guest speaker was Mrs. Velma Neely. She spoke about the need of Victory Gardens and the best way to have them. She said the camp would be using tons of vegetables, and told how helpful it would be if we would raise enough in our yards to meet our own need. She stressed three important points for gardens: plan your garden, plant the vegetables the family likes and try the best seed. She suggested that those who have Victory Gardens, put up a "V" sign to show what they are doing.

Miss Odessa Gillis, Home Service Advisor for Miss. Power and Light Co. was the second guest speaker. She spoke on the food value of our vegetables. She had illustrated charts that showed what vitamins can do. She stressed the fact that "a healthy America is a strong America."

After these interesting talks Mrs. Thomason told about prizes of Defense stamps, that will be given for the best gardens, and the meeting was adjourned.

P. F. C. D. Christopher, of Camp Shelby, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Christopher.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayward, Jr. and baby are to leave Saturday for their new home in Oklahoma City. Grenada friends surely do regret their departure and wish for this couple happiness in their new home. Mr. Hayward will work for Douglas Air Craft.

Mrs. J. G. Sigman, nee Paula Moss, left Thursday last for San Francisco, to join her husband. She went by plane from Memphis.

Benton Keeton, student the past term at Baylor University, Texas, has been here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Keeton. He left last Thursday night and reported Monday morning at Dallas, Texas, where he was enrolled in Army Air Corps.

Camp McCain News

There have been several changes in the front building... the Engineers. Mrs. Virginia McCool is now in charge of the Voucher section, and is doing a fine job. She replaced Harry Meyburn who is now working at the Air Base, under Col. Walker.

Replacing Mrs. McCool as head of the File Section is Mrs. Inez Moore. Her husband is still in Hawaii, you know, but she talked to him long distance a while ago which we told you. He sent her a lovely gaily flower printed silk blouse from a little island lately.

This is just a notice, in passing, for we'll write up all the printable details the coming issue... but the personnel of the Engineer Office doing the construction out at Camp are throwing a big party out at the Air Base this Thursday night for the people at Camp who have worked with them. It may also be a farewell party for Capt. Jimmie Emmons. You all know by now, if you've been within one hundred yards of Jimmie and his walling, that he has been ordered to Omaha, Nebraska—immediately. He just received a lovely letter from the Chamber of Commerce in Omaha welcoming him and his family to their fair green city, but he still can't work up anything but ire.

Then there's the case of the Swilling Feet and the Missing Miss Trusy. If all happened in Memphis last week-end, when she walked a little too much. Here's the real story. You know how hard it is to get shoes, of course, on three tickets a year... well, Marie thought of that while she was tramping all over Memphis, so she just sat down in front of Levy's, slipped off her shoes, put them in her purse (she only wears a size 2, you know) and continued onward. The next day she didn't report to work.

All the camp is sorry that Mrs. Mary Johnston is still sick at home in Winona. She was operated on two weeks ago, but is doing very nicely now. She was working at C. T. Main, but it is unlikely that she will return to her job. She was the Champion Cross-worrier of the outfit.

This isn't exactly Camp gossip, but we thought that the boys at camp should know that some one is really doing a little shore work right under noses. We say Mary Lila Horton this Sunday en route to the Grenada Theatre with a fad in the Navy Blue instead of the usual Army tan.

Just received a letter-post card from Joyce Horton, who left two weeks ago to join her husband, flying Lt. Frank Horton, in Sparta, Wisconsin. She says that she loves it there, in spite of below zero weather, and can't wait to learn to ski. They have a darling house, and Joyce, when we last saw her the night before she left, was working on some frilly aprons... she thought that they might detract from the cookin'.

The fine planes and the magnificent asphalt runways are certainly worth talking about, but the most talked about part of the Air Base this week is the big dance they are going to hold there tonight. As this column written on Wednesday this time, I can't give you the details of the dance right now, just the bare outline, which sounds colorful enough itself.

About 7:30 the bus is going to pick up the USO girls at their Center at Grenada, and carry them out to the Base. Officers' Quarters is serving as the temporary club house, and to the best of our research, it is going to be beautifully decorated. There will be even an out-of-town orchestra to put the khaki-clad hosts and their guests in a dancing mood.

The whole Air Base is going to be invited, and so the dance certainly promises to be a success in every way.

Mrs. Frank Gerard will be the chaperone in charge and many of the other gracious ladies of the USO will act as chaperones with her. All the girls will be sorry to hear that Mrs. George, who is one of the usual chaperones and who has done a great deal of work on this dance, is sick in bed this week with a bad cold, and a light touch of flu. She is planning to attend the next dance, however.

Next week I'll tell you what happened there.

Just for a parting remark, let me tell you about the terrific appetite that our armed forces have. For instance, the lunch that Lt. Givhan, Post Police Officer, had this week one day at Duck Hill. As a little side dish, in addition to the regular dinner, he had two plates full of black-eyed peas, and an orange sundae!

The old lady has a number of houses in Grenada listed with her for sale.

Gunner Mate 1st Class Charlie Litten of Uncle's Navy, honored the GCW with a visit while he is home on a short leave. He is head of a gun crew on a destroyer. He is scheduled to become Chief Gunner Mate shortly. His wife is also here for a visit.

Staff Sgt. William Yeager, of Camp Swift, Texas, used some of his pay while home on a furlough to invest for six months' treatment from the GCW. Seeing that he had gained about 40 pounds it was easy to see that he was a Mess Sergeant.

Dear Brother Solar: thanks for the nice letter.

Staff Sgt. Ann Pressgrove, of Long Island, N. Y. arrived last Saturday to spend two weeks with homefolks.

Charter Changes

Explained one way, the proposed charter changes in the City Charter sound good. The argument is that the Marshal (or, if appointed by the Council, the Chief Police) should be responsible to someone, and, if he is not doing his duty, can be removed as would any other unfaithful employee. This line of argument, of course, also applies to the City Clerk.

Let us, however, imagine the 1941 campaign in progress, and that the changes have been made which makes it the duty of the City Council to appoint the Marshal and the Clerk. Let us say that two strong men, Messrs. A. and B., are maneuvering around to be appointed as the Chief of Police, and that two other persons, C. and D., each with his or her connections, are seeking to be appointed City Clerk. That's not hard to imagine, for that is the way it will be. Say that YOU are candidate for mayor or alderman. A's friends will sound you out, and will not vote for you unless you are pledged to A; B's friends will do the same thing; and so will the friends of C and the friends of D. In short, when the offices of mayor and aldermen are filled, the Marshal and the Clerk will already have been filled for all practical purposes, as the strongest candidates for appointment to these positions will have stuffed the City Council, and will have pledged a majority to vote for the appointment of the favored ones.

In other words, the tail will wag the dog, instead of the dog wagging the tail. Or, at least, that's the way I see it.

A Fine Job For The American Legion

While I can not put my hand on it, and identify it, there seems to be an undercurrent of friction between the civil and military personnel in the local area. As stated last week, I do not know of a single instance where a soldier has been mistreated.

I believe the people of Grenada (even if some of them did not want the change here) want to treat the men who are preparing for the defense of America, including Grenada and its citizens, fairly and hospitably, and do not want to mistreat them in any way.

I believe a strong committee from the American Legion could serve an important role in smoothing out any real or fancied grievance between the civilians and the service men. If a soldier thinks he has been mistreated, let him make a full report of the circumstances to his commanding officer, who in turn would turn over the report to the Legion committee for investigation. Let this committee from the American Legion act as an arbiter between the civilians and soldiers.

I suggest American Legion men, for these men are accustomed to army "ways."

We are all together in this war, and have no time for internal quarrels.

The USO A Great Organization

I never appreciated what a wonderful organization the USO is until I have seen what a marvelous change it has wrought in our Mr. Greenfield, who is local chairman of the Jewish Welfare Board, a branch of the USO.

Nobody ever accused our Mr. Greenfield of being dishonest, disconcerting or disloyal; but nobody ever heard of Mr. Greenfield refusing a drink—until, it must be said in justice to him, he felt it reaching up near his tonsils. He habitually associated with other men who did drink liquor. He knew every bootlegger within twenty miles of Grenada. He never did get drunk, but he seldom refused a drink. Nor was Mr. Greenfield loath to place his money on the rolling dominoes.

But, since our Mr. Greenfield has become chairman of the J. W. B., and associated with the USO activities in Grenada he devotes his attention almost entirely to USO and JWB work, and has practically forsaken his evil companions. The climax to this reformation came when he recently attended a meeting of the JWB in New Orleans, when Mr. Greenfield—though surrounded by liquor of every kind, and beset by many, many temptations—confined his activities (when not occupied with speeches and attendance at the big meeting in the St. Charles Hotel) to the SIDEWALKS of Canal Street.

My hat is off to the USO. The WCTU is not in the running with the USO when it comes to reformation.

J. A. Jones Company To Be Awarded Army-Navy "E."

The J. A. Jones Construction Co., of Charlotte, N. C., prime contractors at Camp McCain and at the Grenada Army Air Base, has been notified of the award of the Army-Navy "E" pennant for work well done for the armed forces.

With fitting ceremony the pennant will be presented by Major General Eugene Reynolds, Chief of Army Engineers, at Hoffman, N. C., where the company is completing the construction of a large Army installation, on March 8. This is a distinction which so far has been awarded only one other general contracting organization.

The Jones company has completed, or is working on the following jobs: Fort Jackson, Columbia, S. C.;

Camp Shelby, Miss.; Camp Croft, S. C.; Keesler Field, Miss.; Camp Gordon, Ga.; Camp Rucker, Ala.; Camp McCain and the Army Air Base, Grenada, Miss.; Naval Air Station, Elizabeth City, N. C.; Air Borne Division Camp, Hoffman, N. C.; Air Force Mechanics School, Gulfport, Miss.; Quartermaster Depot, Charlotte, N. C.; and Air Force Replacement Center, Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. Edwin L. Jones, Secretary-Treasurer of the company, and in charge of work in the Grenada area, will probably receive the award in the name of the company.

The "Jones Boys" are to be congratulated.

Miscellaneous Thoughts

Thinking the war will be over any time soon is inspired only by foolish and baseless optimism. The easy occupation of Northwest Africa, where there was little but token resistance, made many of the optimists think that the whole of North Africa could be captured just as easily. Only a wishful thinker can see much encouragement anywhere except on the Russian front. Even there the Russians are advancing by the foot over territory where they retreated by the furlong.

The Russians have a long, hard way to go before they drive the Germans out. Stalin voiced his impatience over the opening up of a second European front in no mistakable terms, just recently.

Rommel is not out of the picture by any means. He is recent breaking through the American lines for considerable gains shows he is far from dead.

Submarine menace is growing. They are now sinking large liners, supposed to be laden with soldiers. Our long supply lines make it extremely difficult not only to send across the number of men needed, but also to keep these men adequately supplied, especially when the U boat packs take such heavy toll.

China, no doubt, is in desperate condition. Only a tenuous air route prevents China from being completely isolated from her allies and from sources of necessary gasoline and equipment. Men, they have by the millions, but poorly armed and poorly equipped men, however courageous, have little chance against well equipped enemies.

We are getting nowhere mighty fast in the South Pacific. The Japs drove our allies and us southward by the mile, while we struggle back by the inch.

The immense superiority of men, machines, raw material and productive capacity on the side of us and our allies will, of course, eventually bring about the collapse of the Axis nations, but the time is, I believe, far in the future.

Our leaders have never sought to keep from us the gravity of the situation and the necessity of eternal effort and eternal vigilance, so why should we, the laymen, visualize a picture that we create for our own satisfaction?

The United States has, in the 14 months of this war, already dug deeper into the reservoir of manpower than it did in 18 months of the last war. As far as I know, not one married man was drafted in the last war. As I recall, not one man over 31 was drafted and sent across in the last war. Rationing as we ALREADY have, was unheard of during the last war, when rubber, gasoline, canned goods, shoes and almost everything else except flour, sugar and coal were abundant.

Rationing, restrictions and "verboten" signs will multiply in this country as time goes on. The rationing program has just started. When I hear some person belly-aching about some minor inconvenience, I feel like saying, "You don't know nothing. Just wait about six months, and you will then know we are at war."

Where we now see the names of a FEW casualties, we will shortly see the names of MANY casualties. We have already been prepared for huge casualty lists from the African front and from the recently sinking of two liners, but the casualties will be insignificant compared with those we WILL hear of before peace comes.

Let us once and for all put aside foolish and groundless optimism and face the tragic truth—that we are far from winning this war and that, unless we speed up, we CAN lose it yet.

In my opinion, the rationing of some of the things now being rationed is the result of the work of the "Me First" boys—the fellows having money who stored up unusual quantities of scarce commodities. As long as selfishness and greed and the "Me First" attitude prevail in the world (and they will prevail forever) a rationing program is necessary. This program, being meaded by the "black market," will theoretically permit an equal distribution of essential food and clothing to ALL people.

The "Me First" boys should be searched out and punished. Why should one man have hares whole beef and another man cannot get a soup bone? Why should one man have 100 pounds of sugar, while another man cannot get enough sugar to sweeten his coffee or tea? I am 100 percent for the rationing plan, and I only hope that it "works."

Have you been to Charleston yet to get your cured meat?

You, the reader, are wasting your own time and the time of our employees by quarrelling with Horn or Greenfield about what goes into this paper or what is kept out of this paper. They are in no wise responsible. In the final wind-up, the editor of this, as well as any other newspaper is responsible for the contents of the newspaper. Quarrel with me or with the old lady, but leave Horn and Greenfield alone. We do the best we can, often make mistakes of omission and commission, and admit them here and now, for we are not perfect.

Dear Andrew: we are having some mighty fine weather these days.

The reader is urgently requested to study the rationing program published on the back page of the Second Section. It is highly important.

Hodge is back with Jackson.

These warm spring-like mornings I can hardly resist getting up and catching a nile—but I manage to resist that impulse.

Kirk recently added to his immense land holdings by buying the Dixie old place four miles west on No. 7.

Up until this time, Wednesday 11 a. m., we have not had TWO fires at the SAME time.

The worms and bugs are going to have some fine provender from some of these new gardens, started with enthusiasm when the weather is mild, but abandoned when the weather gets hot.

OPA says everyone must register this week for the new ration book which will be used for food rationing, even farm folks who raise their own food.

Fresh vegetables are expected to be scarce during the coming summer than ever before in our history, and people who never thought about planting a vegetable garden are making plans for one this year.

VICTORY FARM GARDENS

Agents from the Department of Agriculture are planning to call on rural women to explain the best kinds of food which can be grown in Southern Victory Gardens.

Seeds and bulbs have been exempt from price control, but OPA has entered the scene to stop rising prices by clamping a ceiling on onion sets. The Department of Agriculture has announced price-supporting loans on hay and pasture seeds.

PLENTY OF SMOKE

WPB says cigarette production is running at an all-time high. The boys in uniform like their smokes, and there's no prospect of a shortage, either for them or for civilians.

There won't be much smoke from fishing boats this year. OPA has tightened up the use of fuel for "pleasure boating" . . . Folks who go fishing will have to row the boat now.

GOOD BYE PATENT LEATHER!

Not that it makes much difference to us, but WPB has ordered that men's patent leather shoes and men's "sandals" be discontinued. Spiked golf shoes are out for the duration, too, and so is manufacture of women's evening slippers.

ODT says that truck owners, including farmers, are giving "splendid cooperation" in saving tires and gas. They are driving only three miles now for every four driven in 1941. This means that the nation's trucks will last much longer.

FARM HELP

The Farm Security Administration is launching a program to locate farm families who are just barely getting along and move them to places where their work will not be in vain. Fighting men require plenty of food, our Allies are in desperate need of food—five billion pounds were shipped to them in 1942.

CHECK FORGERS ACTIVE

The U. S. Secret Service is warning people not to cash government checks without identification from the person who presents it. Millions of soldiers and sailors and war workers are being paid in government checks right now. Some of these people are being swindled out of their checks by forgers who then pretend are the person for whom the check was issued. The Secret Service says government checks should be handled just like personal checks.

WAAC Recruiting Officer Spent Four Days Here

LT. J. E. Reeves, WAAC Recruiting Officer from the Army Recruiting Station in Jackson, spent the first four days of this week in Grenada seeking enlistments in this new branch of Uncle Sam's all-out effort to defeat Hitlerism. Sergeant A. Harrison, United States Army, was her assistant.

Application blanks to join the WAACs may be obtained at the post office, filled out and sent to the Army Recruiting Station in Jackson, Miss.

me to the USO headquarters on the first floor of City Auditorium within two blocks of Union Station. The directors were very gracious to me and asked one of the girls to take me on a tour of inspection. The "hobby" den where many interesting pictures and articles were displayed, the snack bar, nap-a-while, where soldiers can take a nap in town, also the dance floor, where many army boys are given every week, ping pong tables, card room, lounge for resting and writing letters and a room for athletic games and matches. Returned to the station for supper and to catch the train. At 10:25 we changed trains at Central. Mo., and had 35 miles into Columbia where the University of Missouri is located as is Stephens and Christian College. Columbia is about the size of Vicksburg. One walks down tree-shaded streets only to notice at almost every angle, foot paths worn by the thousands of students who always take the "short cut." Here in Columbia they have the original "Teen Age" center. Mrs. Roosevelt who was there on Tuesday of the same week mentioned the "Teen Age" center in her daily column published in the Kansas City Star. Our daughter, Dorothy, was presented to the first lady with several other "J" school students.

The fraternity houses occupied by college boys were ordered vacated February 19 to make room for students in army training, so all of the young men were doing a great job of moving and storing furniture. The Sorority houses out about Richmond Place are handsome structures. Some Colonial, some Old English in design, forming together a most beautiful residential section.

Having lunch and dinner with the girls and going to a picture show and enjoying the scenes of this college town, inland and secure and away from the rush of things caused my visit. I left for home Saturday, and the last I saw of Dorothy was as she walked up the hill from the station, the wind in her hair and that determined something in her stride as she moved on back to her duties at "J" School. (Journalism School). Reached home on the "Panama" Sunday morning at 3:13, and I mean it when I say it's nice to be home safely after a long trip like that.

Letter To The Editor

Grenada, Miss., Feb. 20, 1943

Mr. Whyte Whitaker,
Editor, Grenada County Weekly,
Grenada, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Whitaker:

The following seems appropriate and in order for the heading of your column to your so Andrew in next week's edition of your paper:

Dear Andrew—He has gone—and returned—is my face redder than usual!!

Yours truly,
Edna Burle.

P. S.—Disinterested U. S. Army doctors at the Induction Center at Camp Selby refuted your diagnosis.

EDITOR'S NOTE: My only diagnosis was that ALL young men, not notoriously incapacitated, should go to Selby.

OFFICE OF PROB-GANDA WAH DEPARTMENT

February 20, 1943

SUBJECT: Hair Raid Alerts
TO: Whom It May Concern

1. On February 19, the small city of Clinton, Miss., was the scene of a direct bomb hit as a result of a long awaited attack. Eye witnesses describe the attacking aircraft as "toro-like" in appearance. The lone casualty was Mrs. L. C. Proby, Jr., who was rushed immediately to the Jackson Infirmary and placed under the care of Dr. John Walker.

2. Meanwhile, the intruder was hit by anti-aircraft fire and was seen to fall out using a new style square parachute; landing nearby, she was rushed also to the Jackson Infirmary arriving at 11:55 a. m. February 19, 1943.

3. The next day, after intensive questioning, the parachutist broke down and gave the following information:

Name: Linda Hall Proby
Rank: Baby, Junior Grade
Serial No.: 000001
Weight: 9 lbs. 7 oz.

Captain Proby revealed today that measures are being taken to prevent the re-occurrence of this incident for the duration.

Aint they sweet.

I have tried to be calm this week and refrain from anything to get anybody's feathers ruffled. Folks skin is thin.

USO News

Hugh S. Thomas and John T. Karples, directors of the USO announce the securing of the lease for the American Legion Hut on Mound Street for the enlarging of the USO services to soldiers, associated civilians and defense workers in Grenada and vicinity.

Plans have been made to expend several thousand dollars on interior renovations and alterations to make the Hut a comfortable, bright home for our soldier boys when they visit Grenada. It will be equipped to perform all kinds of services, such as giving shower baths, light lunches, motion picture shows and all the many other services of the USO National Program.

The USO Saturday night dance will once again be featured by the remarkable organization known as "The Grenadiers" with George Hipp, piano, Jules Carnecki, saxophone, Larry Madero, drums, Benny Hauser, cornet, Donald Wamsley, electric guitar. A large group of Grenada girls are expected. Refreshments will be served by the American Legion Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Sam McCort.

ATTEND USO MEET

Mr. John Karples, Grenada's supervisor of Jewish Welfare, for the USO attended a well attended regional conference of the JWB held at New Orleans at the St. Charles Hotel on Saturday, Sunday and Monday of this week. Those present were from Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida. Mr. Karples, who is doing a splendid work here among the Jewish boys was accompanied on this trip by Mr. Harry Greenfield, local chairman. Both gentlemen were speakers during the session, and returned home with renewed enthusiasm for the great work to be done here.

MRS. AVENT RESIGNED

When I returned to Grenada I was surprised to learn that Mrs. Aventura had resigned as chairman of USO in five counties and had resigned from State Executive Board governing USO in Mississippi.

Mrs. Aventura has given unselfishly of her time, money, talent, and energy for more than two years to perfect a model USO chapter here. She used her influence to obtain the Community House for a USO center, she interviewed at length many property owners trying to secure places to establish recreation rooms for the soldiers. She worked untiringly to secure the American Legion Hut for a center and it was Sunday last that Mr. Sanders called her over the phone, thanking her for her successful efforts concerning the renting of this property. This having been decided at an executive meeting early in January of this year. The executive committee, which included Rev. Wiley, Rev. Pharr, Rev. Liles, Rev. Robinson, Mayor Proby, Mrs. R. B. Thompson, Mrs. L. D. Boone, Mrs. F. T. Gerard, Mrs. Aventura, and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, has carried on with only local money and talent and aid of the many splendid men and women of Grenada.

The Y. M. C. A. regional director, Mr. Harry Baker, representing the agency selected to govern the USO in Grenada, was here last week making a general check up. His director, Mr. Hugh Thomas, is now in charge and in the new set up, which includes Mrs. Barkley Coats as secretary and Mr. John Karples, JWB representative; others included are Mr. W. H. Saunders, chairman, Mrs. L. D. Boone, treasurer; Mrs. Abe Isenberg, secretary; with managing board including Mrs. Donald Ross, Mr. Louis Friedman, Mr. A. M. Carothers and Mr. Lewis Odum.

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker to continue her work as co-chairman of negro recreation work here.

FOR SALE: Two bedsteads, extended, dining table, small table, safe, chairs, fruit jars, heater; also sledge and wedge, Cohen's seed sower, fence stretchers, hose, etc. Will move March 8. Henry D. Parks, Oak land, 2-25, 3-4-P.

directors at Grenada attended. Camp officers including Colonel Wise, Col. Walker, Major Holcomb, Major Jerome, Lt. Tomb, Lt. Ades, Lt. Cheyney and Lt. Harris, were present.

Lt. Ades, special service officer, was "master of ceremony" and certainly proved to be most versatile and pleasant.

The dance started at the end of the grand march led by Major Holcomb and Mrs. Gerard. Mrs. Gerard was attired in a handsome formal of black chiffon with which she wore long green gloves, green costume jewelry and hair bow, and carried an evening bag of green velvet. Her corsage was of white carnations and fern.

At intermission the hosts served delectable orange juice and sandwiches and cakes.

The Rhythm Counts Orchestra from Charleston furnished the music. During the evening familiar songs, including National songs were sung. The dance "broke" at 11 o'clock.

Holding The Calf's Tail

Most of us grocers can be compared to the little boy who went out to the barn yard and thought it would be lots of fun to grab a young calf by the tail and drag it around the lot. But lo and behold the calf was stronger than the boy had figured, so the calf started running the other way and dragging the boy with it and each time it went around the lot it kept getting faster, so the boy decided he couldn't afford to let go of calf's tail because he might land in a fence corner with a broken neck and he did the only sensible thing. Run like blue blazes and try to get upon the calf's back and ride him until he run down. Brother you ain't seen no running yet, just wait until he gets warmed up and gets six month's running to his credit, he'll go around so fast it'll make you dizzy.

Last week, we referred to our friend, Cpl. Simon Sadoff, as one of Col. Ryder's main goldbrickers. This seemed to have offended him and the adjutant. If I had not liked the corporal, I would never have taken the liberty of joking with him. If any apologies are necessary, here they are. As a matter of fact, his C. O. states that he is one of the hardest working men in the outfit, and one of the most efficient.

Since the old lady got back I am getting more and better views of pretty legs of women seeking apartments.

Our Mr. Greenfield spent Monday and part of Sunday at a big USO-JWL meeting at New Orleans. I never have seen such a great reformation as has taken place with Mr. Greenfield since he became connected with the welfare work.

J. D. Blakeley now getting his mail at Sweetman recently renewed.

Well, old Fisher Ottenburg (do not put an "e" in it Horn) is now in the Canal Zone where a pretty senorita peers from behind every palm tree, not that he is interested in such things.

Aint they sweet.

Something must be wrong, Fred Sullivan and I are on the same side in the governor's race.

Pvt. E. H. Smith is harder to keep up with than a needle in a haystack.

Did we mention that Brother E. L. Foster, of Peoria, is with us now?

Poor Mississippi.

The old lady is still spending half of her time telling folks sweetly that she has no apartments, rooms or houses in Grenada. There aint none.

Seeing little boys spinning tops and playing marbles is an infallible sign of spring. They have started.

Politics is (are) picking up in Beat Three with two contestants for supervisor already in the field.

Oh, me.

No sardines today, or any day this week.

Politician D. F. Hawkins, of Route 3 has united with our happy family. He has lots of sense.

Sam Mims has gone to drinking soft drinks, which are going to rust out his intestines.

The termites will not bother the runways and apron at the Grenada AAB.

If we get any more new subscribers, we will have to cut off some of the old ones for we have our mailing galley filled CHAP.

This rationing business should remove some of these big bellies.

Dear Caroline: I hope your mammy has written you more than she has me.

Mabel and I are sincerely appreciative of our friends who kindly sent all people looking for rooms to us. Of course, we have no rooms and have not had in 3 or 4 months, but we appreciate the business (?) just the same. This business (?) has grown so large that in the future, we request that only the good looking ones be sent to us—you know something to ease the eye strain. Those full of angles, we hope will be sent elsewhere. I just naturally hate to look at an angular woman. Jack Dyre needs more than anyone else.

No joking, Horn and Greenfield face a week end of idleness and sin this week end.

Several of the boys who are in non-essential work are sitting on the uneasy seat.

If this country has a bad crop year next year, we are going hungry in a country which destroyed growing crops and pregnant sows.

Several of our lady friends are in-anticipating.

Overlooked in the hurry of times: the appointment to the City School Board of E. R. Green, one of the most levelheaded men in Grenada.

While in Jackson recently I saw my old friend, Billy Salder. As he is not running for anything I do not expect to call him, Betty.

Billy Hayward has changed his address again.

Dug Up From The Last War—Monologue

I am one of the fellows who made the world safe for democracy. What a crazy thing that was. I fought and I fought, but I had to go anyway. I was called in Class "A" The next time I went to be in Class "B"; be there when they go and BE here when they come back. I remember when I registered; I went up to a guy in charge only to find that he was my milk man. He said "What's your name?" I said, "You know my name." "What's your name," he barked... so, I told him... "August Childs." He said, "Are you an Allen?" I said, "No, I feel fine." He asked me where I was born... I said, "Pittsburgh." Then he said, "When did you first see the light of day?" I said, "When we moved to Philadelphia." He said, "The first of September you'll be in France and that will be the last of August."

A veterinarian started to examine me. He asked me if I ever had the measles, smallpox, St. Vitus dance and did I ever take fits? I said, "No, only when I stayed in a saloon too long." Then he said "Can you see all right?" I said, "Sure, but I'll be cockeyed to-night if I pass." The Dr. said that he had examined 140,000 men and that I was the most perfect physical wreck that he ever seen. Then he handed me a Class "A" card.

Then I went to camp and I guess they didn't think I'd live long. This fellow I saw wrote on my card, "Flying Corpse." I went a little further and some guy said, "Look what the wind's blown in." I said, "Wind nothing, the draft's doing it." On the second morning they put these clothes on me. What an outfit! As soon as you're in it, you think you can fight anybody. They have but two sizes, too small and too large. The pants are so tight that I can't sit down. The shoes are so big that I turned around three times and they didn't move. What a rain coat they gave me! It started to rain. I paused by an officer all dressed up with a fuzzy belt and all that stuff. He said, calling me as I passed on, "Didn't you notice my uniform when you passed?" I turned and said, "Yes, what are you kidding about, look what they gave me?"

I landed in camp with $75.00. In ten minutes I was broke. I never saw so many threes and twelves on one pair of dice. No matter what I did, I went broke. Something went wrong even in cards. One time I got five aces... but was afraid to bet. A good thing I didn't... the fellow next to me said we were playing pinochle. Everything went crazy. If you were lively you were put in the Medical Department. If you were a watchman, you were made the Officer of the Day. I saw a guy with a wooden leg and asked him what he was doing in the Navy. He said, "I'm going to mash potatoes."

Oh, it was nice... I below zero one morning, they called us out for an underwear inspection. You talk about scenery... red flannels, BVD's (all kinds). The union suit I had on would fit Tony Gallento. The Lt. lined us up and told us to stand up. I said "I am up, this underwear makes you think I'm sitting down." He got so mad, he put me out digging a ditch. A little while later he passed and said, "Don't throw the dirt up here." I said "Where am I going to put it?" He said "Dig another hole and put it there." By that time I was pretty mad, so another guy named Jones and myself drank a quart of whiskey. Finally Jones acted so funny, I ran down to the Dr. and told him that Jones was blind. He asked me what we were doing and I told him we drank a quart of whiskey. So he asked me if Jones saw "Pink Elephants?" I said, "No, that's just it, they're there and he can't see them."

NUMBER FORTY-ONE

Delayed Report U. D. C.

The January meeting, Grenada Chapter in the home of Mrs. G. D. Thompson, Snider Street, was highly and informatively refreshed and entertained by our splendid citizen, Mr. J. B. Perry on the "Life of Gen. Robt. E. Lee." We thought we were well up on his inexhaustible subject, but not so. Many splendid incidents hitherto unrevealed to the average reader were brought out. Mrs. Ben Thompson read a most enlightening paper on the life of Gen. Thomas Jackson, Gen. Lee's right arm in the cause of the Confederacy. The chapter is deeply grateful to our guest entertainers, especially so as we were celebrating the birthdays of our incomparable leaders.

On February 25th, 3 p. m. we are to be especially honored by our guest speaker, Gen. P. W. Clarkson, of Camp McCain. Every member is urgently requested to be present. The meeting of chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. B. F. Thomas, corner 3rd and Kershaw by special request of our esteemed honorary member, as hostess.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wise than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

For Re-Election

To The Voters of The Fifth Circuit Court District:

I respectfully submit this formal announcement of my candidacy for an endorsement term as your District Attorney.

My first wish, however, is to again thank you for your kindness of four years ago. Then asking for the first time for the honors of public service, I was politically unknown. You had nothing on which to support me but my personal history and my solemn assurance that if elected I would fearlessly execute the duties of the office. You accepted my pledge and you elected me to serve you.

It is not any longer necessary that you consider my candidacy in the light of mere promises. My official record is indelibly written on the dockets and minute books in every courthouse in this district. It is open to inspection and subject to criticism. Being human, like those whom it is my sworn duty to serve, I have made mistakes, but those mistakes have been made in favor of law and order, not against it. And I have tried not to make the same mistake twice.

The execution of the duties of this office has been a great experience for me—one that equips me for better service in the future. In the first 3 years of my term, I have handled a total of 771 state cases.

In 75 jury trials in the circuit court, there were 64 verdicts of guilty as compared with only 11 verdicts of not guilty. In 10 other jury cases, the jury was unable to agree that the accused was either guilty or innocent. One of these, a highly important murder case, was later submitted to another jury which promptly imposed a life sentence. In any event, the record stands at 64 convictions, 11 acquittals and 10 "draws". I do not boast of this record, but in view of the promises I made you, I am proud of it, especially when I recall that the burden on the State in criminal prosecutions never shifts. The defendant does not have to prove anything; the State has to prove everything. The law presumes the defendant to be innocent until proven guilty by the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt and to a moral certainty.

In a number of these convictions, I have had the assistance of very able local attorneys, which I wish to gratefully acknowledge. I likewise wish to thank the sheriffs, other peace officers, many good citizens, and the hundreds of conscientious jurors before whom I have worked, for making these results possible.

There were 253 pleas of guilty in the circuit court, and 188 cases were remanded by writ of procedendo to the Justices of the Peace for the execution of original sentences.

One person received the death penalty for murder, there were 104 sentences to the State Penitentiary, 138 sentences to the county jails, and 111 were sentenced to pay fines.

Yet, I can truthfully say that I have never prosecuted any person that I believed to be innocent. I have nolle prossed 83 cases and remanded 161 cases to the files, where my investigation showed that the defendant was innocent, or that he had been convicted on similar charges, or that he had gone to the army, or was a young boy who deserved another chance, or that the evidence was such that a prosecution could not result in anything but a big expenditure of public money.

In these three years, I have served exactly 100 days with the grand juries. I have questioned 1594 grand jury witnesses, and I have personally written 365 bills of indictment. None of those indictments have been demurred out of court for having been improperly drawn.

The process of enforcing the law is for many reasons a very expensive one. I have done all in my power, within the rules of the law, to expedite my work as much as possible and to save any expense that could be avoided.

I am willing for the status of law and order in this district to be compared with that in any of the other 16 judicial districts in Mississippi. I believe that it meets with your approval. If re-elected, I shall serve you in the future as I have in the past.

Cordially yours,

J. P. COLEMAM

One thing a soldier is afraid of is a display of emotion. That's why his slang so often sounds derogatory. For example, he refers to the silver eagles on his colonel's shoulder straps as "buzzards." But when he speaks of his favorite cigarette, he says: "Camels." They're first with men in the Army as well as with Sailors, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen. (According to actual sales records in service men's stores.) A gift of a carton of Camels is always well received. THE March of Time's "One Day of War—Russia, 1943" is probably the best documentary film that has come out of this war. That was the opinion of Walter Graebner, their war correspondent, when he saw it in Moscow. His adventures in getting it to the MOT's New York office would make an exciting mystery film. Once, when he looked for the cans of film, they had disappeared! He waited in Teheran for a duplicate print to be flown to him, and the plane was forced down on the way. The African offensive broke, and he had to cover it. When the film finally reached Cairo the Egyptian customs refused to pass it, till he talked them over.

John Garfield isn't finding his midget automobile so cramped since he worked in Warner Bros. "Air Force"—he spent most of his time in an improvised tail gun position in the Flying Fortress Mary Ann. Mary Ann is the heroine of the picture.

Monty Woolley, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," became the man who came to the Jolson's air program, "Life Begins at 8:30," and remained to co-star. After two guest performances the combination of Jolson and Woolley was seen to be so satisfactory that it was made a permanent one. Now it's known as the Al Jolson-Monty Woolley program, at the insistence of the former.

Marry McGuire, REO's 17-year-old find, is likely to become the pet of the music publishers. Making her screen bow in "Seven Days' Leave," she sang "Touch of Texas" and "I Got the Neck of the Chicken" straight into the Hit Parade. And her performance won her a top role in her company's forthcoming Ray Kysar-Edgar Bergen comedy, "Keep 'Em Singing."

Gig Young put his heart and soul into his portrayal of the co-pilot of "Air Force's" Mary Ann, which depicts the air war against the Japs from the days of Pearl Harbor. His father-in-law and close friend is a prisoner of the Japanese.

The "Town Hall Club" of Boston bestowed scrolls on Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, calling their NBC humor "earthy," and hailing it as having "helped to unify Americans in our war effort by supplying democratic laughter with which to form a bond of wellbeing among our people." Quite a tribute to two comedians who just started out being funny as a way of earning a living!

Ever wonder what's happened to the kids of "Our Gang"? Farina's now a soldier, serving in Australia; "Fatty" Joe Cobb's a defense worker. Mary Kornman is happily married. Jackie Davis is Dr. John Davis, USN. Freckle-faced "Mickie" Daniels works in an aircraft factory. Johnny Downs alternates between stage and screen. Harry Spear's a bank accountant. Jackie Condon is in service. J. R. Smith is a successful salesman, and blonde Jean Darling has become a very popular night-club singer.

A technicolor musical called "New Orleans" is being made ready for Alice Faye, so it looks as if she's to leave no time now that she's working again. Meanwhile, she'll be co-starring with Carmen Miranda in "The Girls He Left Behind."

"Navy Hotel," a story of the WAVES and the SPARS, will be one of those super-musicals, set against the background of a Miami hotel; Charles R. Rogers wants Benny Goodman and his orchestra for both acting and musical parts in the United Artists production.

ODDS AND ENDS—Bette Davis' first film on her return from her vacation several months hence, will be "Mrs. Sledge." In the making of "One Day of War—Russia, 1943" 99 out of 100 cameramen were killed in action. The Al-derich family series won't lose Jimmy Lydon after all; the army rejected him. The title of the picture co-starring Gracie Fields and Monty Woolley has been changed from "Harold Lloyd" to "My Matrimony." . . . Doree May Whitely is in her 17th year, but the distinguished actress recently signed a new long-term contract with Metro; the first picture will be "Madame Curie."

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS

Blue Ribbon Dessert . . . Lemon Custard Pie (See Recipes Below)

Favorite Desserts

"We like desserts that take fruits, but use little sugar," is the verdict many homemakers give on the dessert problem. Thus, I'm including in today's column several desserts that take citrus fruits now in season—fruits that mean quick-pick-up from tiredness because of the good nutritional values.

As regards the sugar question, most homemakers are finding they can spare some sugar for cooking or baking, and that is why our desserts take some of that sweetening. Don't starve that sweet tooth entirely, for the body needs some carbohydrate foods daily to meet the large demands of daily energy. These dessert recipes are tailored-made to fit your budget and demand for sweets.

Pie's a favorite, and especially so when it's made with a cornflake crust and luscious lemon custard filling:

'Lemon Custard Pie.

Crust:
1 1/2 cups cornflakes
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
3 tablespoons water

Crush cornflakes into fine crumbs; mix well with flour and salt. Cut in shortening with pastry blender until mixture looks like cornmeal. Mix with water just to hold together and let stand in icebox for about 2 hours. Roll dough about 1/8 inch thick, line pie pan with pastry and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) about 15 minutes. Cool and fill shell with:

Lemon Custard:
1 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
4 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup water
3 eggs, separated
1 tablespoon butter
6 tablespoons lemon juice
6 tablespoons sugar for meringue

Bring milk, sugar, salt and lemon rind to boiling point over direct heat. Add cornstarch which has been dissolved in a little water and cook in double boiler for 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks until light.

Remove cooked mixture from egg yolks and add to well beaten egg yolks. Add butter and lemon juice. Cool. Pour into pie shell. Top with meringue made by beating in 6 tablespoons of sugar into the egg whites, slowly, and whipping until it stands in peaks. Bake in a 300-de-

Lynn Says:

The Score Card: Use sauerkraut with pork if you like it. No trout will be canned, but the USDA is helping producers to put it up in barrels. It's said barrel-packed kraut has a superior flavor.

The postman may ring twice but the laundryman can't. Laundries may not deliver clean clothes in the morning and pick up soiled ones in the afternoon. Everything must be done at the same time.

War industries need gas, so it is suggested you save on gas, in every possible way if you are a gas user. Economize it in cooking, water heating and refrigeration.

It looks like nationwide graded meat is just around the corner. The only thing holding it back is a shortage of trained government graders. Now, three out of four "big" meat packers are graduating.

JESUS RESTORES LAZARUS TO LIFE

LESSON TEXT—John 11:23-25, 38-44.
GOLDEN TEXT—"I am the resurrection, and the life."—John 11:25.

Suffering, sorrow and bereavement are so common in our day that this lesson is peculiarly appropriate. Life, even to the Christian, finds its full measure of things which hurt and grieve. Many ask: "Why must I, a follower of Christ, bear such burdens?"

The answer is, that while the believer is not "of the world," he is "in the world," and here he must meet the problems of life, including the evils to which the flesh is heir because of sin. The fact that Jesus is our Friend and our Saviour does not exempt us from human sorrow, but it does assure us of the needed grace to bear the trial and makes us ready to trust Him even in life's darkest hour.

Lazarus, the friend of Jesus, was sick. The home in which Jesus had found rest and fellowship was in deep trouble. Jesus was no longer in Judea. In haste, word was sent to Him of His friend's illness. But He did not come.

Why does He delay? Such is the heart-cry of thousands today who call on Him in their hour of trouble. The purposes of God we cannot fully understand. We need only to trust Him and abide His time.

Notice that His failure to respond at once to the message of Lazarus' sisters did not mean that He had deserted them (John 11:4-6). Nor did it mean that He had denied them His help (v. 7).

Above all, note that He came. He always does. Jesus has never failed any child of His. The time and the manner of His answer to our prayers may not conform to our opinion of what should have been done; but let us remember that we know only in part. He knows all. Let us trust Him. Job, in his darkest hour, said: "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him" (Job 13:15).

The steps from sorrow to victorious joy in this story are three in number.

I. Death and Tears (vv. 33-35). By the time Jesus came, Lazarus was dead and his family and friends could only weep as they said: "If thou hadst been here—" Try as we may to temper its cruel blow, the fact remains that death is the enemy of man. It came into the world as the result of sin (Rom. 8:12), and only in Christ is it "swallowed up in victory" (1 Cor. 15:54). Until the glorious day of Christ's returning, when the redemption of the body will be complete (Rom. 8:23), death will continue to bring sorrow to the heart and tears to the eyes.

But let us not fail to notice that as the friends of Jesus, we do not sorrow alone. "Jesus wept" (v. 35) with Martha and Mary. We know that He weeps with us in our trying hour. He is the "friend that sticks closer than a brother." He is the one who gives grace to meet the deepest sorrow, and to bear it with grace because of His tender fellowship.

II. Faith and Hope (vv. 38-40). "If thou wouldst believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God," said Jesus to Martha. She must look beyond the evident fact of the deadness of her brother and see God's glory in his resurrection. Thus faith assures us that those who believe in Christ have more than the comfort of His sympathetic presence—they have a sure hope (read I Thess. 4:14-15).

Sorrow and unbelief would becloud our faith and thus rob us of our hope. Martha needed to have her faith stimulated by the gracious words of the Lord; and then she triumphantly put her hope in Him, the Christ of God. Once we recognize Him as God, we have no hesitation in believing in His miraculous power.

III. Christ and Resurrection (vv. 41-44). Majestic and authoritative are the words of Christ: "I am the resurrection and the life" (v. 25). He it was who gave life, for was He not "in the beginning with God"? And is it not said of Him, that "all things were made by Him" (John 1:2, 3)? Paul tells us that "by him all things consist" (Col. 1:17). He is the only one who could say: "I lay down my life. . . I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again" (John 10:17, 18).

So it can rightly be said that if we have Christ we have everything—both in this world and in the world to come. But if we do not have Christ, we have nothing; we are without God and without hope. "He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live" (v. 25) is the promise of Christ to us. Let us believe Him.

The resurrection power of Christ is at work in the world today raising the spiritually dead to newness of life in Him.

May we see many such a Lazarus called forth—from the grave clothes of sin and set free.

WE MUST HAVE VICTORY GARDENS

As the war progresses, it becomes more and more evident that America will have the tremendous task of "feeding the world." Two years ago Britain, bombed on every side and threatened by invasion, started what was called a "Victory Garden." Under government proclamation the people of Britain scraped the fallen buildings and rubble away.

Slowly at first, and then rapidly, as the idea "struck home" to every family, they cultivated in their spare time every inch of ground that could be made available. It was this foresight that kept many families from starving as the Nazi submarine force struck hard.

Up to this time it has not been necessary for Americans to raise their food, but as food rationing is more rigidly enforced, we will be impelled to look for fresh vegetables. Many of the farm workers are being drafted; therefore we are confronted with a small output and a large market. As this situation grows more acute, our government realizes that the only plausible remedy is the Victory Garden.

The Grenada Garden Club is offering prizes for the best gardens in the city of Grenada. Whether or not we win a cash prize, we will win in contributing to our own health and that of our allies.

We Must Have Victory Gardens!!

JUNIORS AND SENIORS ASSAULT IN "RATIONING"

Approximately sixty members of the junior and senior classes gladly answered Coach Hathorn's call for volunteers to help in launching the second war Ration Books. These boys and girls will work in groups of ten and will be on duty two days this week.

HIGH SCHOOL PICTURES ARE HERE!

Mingled sighs, moans, and complaints couldn't conceal the smiles with which G. H. S. greeted the pictures taken about four weeks ago. Some of the poses are somewhat unusual and some of the pictures are a little unusual looking—but still, er-everybody wanted and has his picture. The "V..." at least is pleasing.

G. H. S. DIRT

Have you heard about a freshman named Mary-Jane who's been paying visits to a "sick friend" at the Cathays? His name is Billy and he lives in the delta.

Yep, having soldiers around may have its advantages. Take a look at the third finger of Polly Elliott's left hand, and you'll see what we mean.

We've heard rumors that Bobby Alexander and a certain Barbara, newcomer to Grenada High, think they have something in common, and we don't think it's the similarity of their names.

Do you know the story of Six Brave Freshmen? If you don't, you've missed something, because they're all members of G. H. S. We've decided to suggest to the right authorities that they be awarded medals for their courage.

If you're having trouble with the "sick" problem ask Catherine Herring for a little advice. Her family has one that wears a khaki uniform. It must be nice!

A Yankee accent has been added to the babble and confusion of Grenada High in the person of Norma Crozier who hails from Michigan.

"Goat" Towns really put up a gallant fight against that "Long, tall, shoot 'em all" from Casella.

Does light travel in a straight line? Ask Coach (Was his face red?)

The "Moss to Greenhill via Ruth Townes" postal system is quite the thing.

Heresay has it that Bertie and Margaret Green are going to reduce. Wow!!

We hadn't noticed that Billy Thelma looked so much like John Payne but we'll take Jean Gunter's word for it.

WHY CANNED FRUITS, VEGETABLES, AND SOUPS ARE RATIONED

Every week we are sending shiploads of canned goods to feed our fighting men and our fighting allies in Africa, Britain, and the Pacific islands. We must see that they get all the food they need.

We at home will share all that is left. Point Rationing will be used to guarantee you and everyone a fair share of America's supply of canned and processed fruits and vegetables, soups and juices.

HOW they are rationed

1. Every eligible man, woman, child, and baby in the United States is being given War Ration Book Two. (This book will not be used for sugar or coffee.)

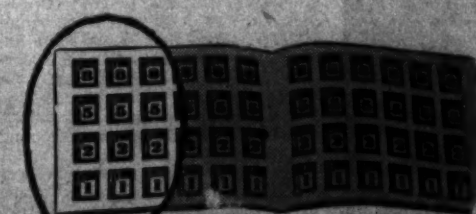

2. The BLUE stamps are for any kind of Canned or Bottled Fruits and Vegetables, Canned or Bottled Juices and Soups, Frozen Fruits and Vegetables, Dried Fruits.

(The red stamps will be used later for meat.)

3. The stamps in this book are POINT stamps. The NUMBER on each stamp shows you how many POINTS that stamp is worth.

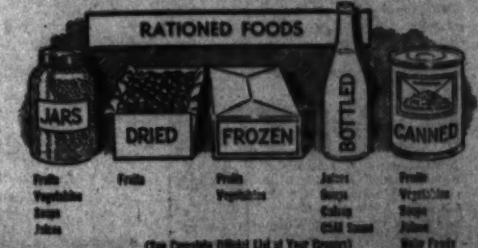

4. The LETTERS show you WHEN to use the stamps. The year will be divided into rationing periods. You can use all BLUE stamps marked A, B, and C in the first rationing period. A, B, and C stamps cannot be used after the first rationing period ends.

ONLY BLUE A, B, and C STAMPS CAN BE USED IN 1st PERIOD

5. You must use the BLUE stamps when you buy ANY KIND of the rationed processed foods. See the official list, showing every kind of rationed processed food, at your grocer. Different kinds of these foods will take different numbers of points. For example, a can of beans may take a different number of points from a can of peas.

Of course, the more of anything you buy the more points it will take. For example, a large can of peas takes more points than a small can.

The Government will set the points for each kind and size and send out an Official Table of Point Values which your grocer must put up where you can see it. The Government will keep careful watch of the supply of these processed foods and make changes in point values from time to time, probably not often more than once a month. The Government will announce these changes when it makes them and they will be put up in the stores.

The number of points for each kind of processed food will be THE SAME in ALL STORES and in all parts of the country.

WATCH THE OFFICIAL TABLE OF POINT VALUES

Use Your OLD Ration Book for SUGAR and COFFEE

HOW TO USE YOUR NEW RATION BOOK TO BUY CANNED OR BOTTLED FRUITS, VEGETABLES, SOUPS, AND JUICES; FROZEN FRUITS AND VEGETABLES; DRIED FRUITS

1. The Government has set the day when this rationing will start. On or after that day, take your War Ration Book Two with you when you go to buy any kind of these processed foods.

14 POINTS

YOU GIVE MANY POINTS FOR SCARCE FOODS

8 POINTS

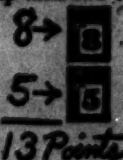

YOU GIVE LESS POINTS FOR FOODS THAT ARE NOT SO SCARCE

2. Before you buy, find out how many points to give for the kind of processed foods you want. Prices do not set the points. The Government will set different points for each kind and size no matter what the price. Your grocer will put up the official list of points where you can see it. It will also be in the newspapers. The points will not change just because the prices do.

3. When you buy, take the right amount of blue stamps out of the book. Do this in front of your grocer or delivery man and hand them to him. The grocer must collect a ration stamp, or stamps, for all the rationed processed foods he sells. Every rationed processed food will take points as well as money.

4. Do not use more stamps than you need to make up the right amount. For example, if the food you buy calls for 13 points it is better to tear out an 8-point and a 5-point stamp than two 5-point stamps and a 2- and a 1-point stamp. Save your smaller point stamps for low-point foods. You can take the stamps from more than one book belonging to your household if you need to.

5. Every person in your household, including children of any age, has a total of 48 points to use for all these processed foods for one ration period. This means that you may use ALL the blue stamps marked A, B, and C from all the books during the first period. You may use as many of the blue A, B, and C stamps as you wish at one time. When they are used up you will not be able to buy any more of these processed foods till the next stamps are good. The Government will announce the date when the next stamps are good.

6. Use your household's points carefully so that you will not run out of stamps. And buy with care to make your points come out even, because the grocer will not be able to give you changes in stamps. Use high-point stamps first, if you can.

IMPORTANT

You may use ALL the books of the household to buy processed foods for the household. Anyone who wish can take the ration books to the store to do the buying for you or your household.

A FAIR SHARE FOR ALL

We cannot afford to waste food or give some people more than their fair share. . . . That is why canned fruits and vegetables are rationed, and that is why meat is going to be rationed. Rationing of some foods is the best and fairest way to be sure that every American gets enough to eat.

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

U. S. Office of Price Administration Washington, D. C. January 1943

Here is the OPA's consumer instruction sheet on point rationing. This leaflet will be given to consumers when they receive War Ration Book Two around the end of February. The leaflet explains how point rationing works and how to buy canned and other processed foods with the new point ration stamps.

The New Year, 1943, is "the end of the beginning." A greater burden of toil and conflict lies ahead. And while America's sons fight in desert and jungle, telephone communication lines at home will carry an ever-increasing load of calls vital to Victory.

Telephone materials are still going to battle in the form of guns and shells. So, to get the most out of our present equipment, we will continue to need your help in keeping long distance lines clear of all but necessary calls. And remember, the greater the distance you talk, the greater the chance of your call getting in the way of important war calls.

We are most grateful for the patriotic response during 1942, to our requests for voluntary reduction of unnecessary long distance calls. It helped us provide the services so badly needed in those critical times.

For the "duration," we can continue to best serve the telephone needs of all by serving our country first.
